Friday Morning. May 9, 1862.

The Nanaimo Road.

It is almost a hopeless matter to urge the construction of a trunk line of road to connect Victoria with Nanaimo. The present government appears utterly devoid of the foresight and energy necessary to the opening up of a new country. Yet if we mention roads the echo is taken up and echoed and re-echned by every one in authority from the Governor down. Not a member in the Assembly but will pronounce himself an adroads. They dare any one to find warmer serving person tell us what they have done towards making roads? If they will, they certainly shall be entitled to a reward; for we are puzzled to find a vestige of anything except "gas." It might be supposed influence over Assemblymen in the matter of roads as in some other matters, and that that body would consequently take the necessary NEW ADVERTISEMENTS steps as speedily as they have on questions less creditable. But even he appears devotedly attached to the Rip Van Winkle policy which has abtained here since Noah was a boy. The height of His Excellency's ambition as interpreted by his mouth piece in the Assembly is the construction of trails through the valleys to the coast. Trails! remember; not roads. Thus we are to invite a farming population to drive their stock into a plunger, and land it at the " location;" and when they have produce fit for market, whether live stock, grain, or potatoes, they must resort to a similar expedient. Like the farmers of Washington Territory, they are to become anphibious. How pre-eminently successful will such a device be to create a nursery for our merchant navy! but how sublimely ridiculous for the purpose of creating a noble peasantry. Then what a dwarfed intellect it must be that can conceive such a scheme, and repudiate the construction of a paltry road-paltry in expense

-70 miles to Nanaimo! We stand abashed for the honor-the credit Beautiful Colored Table Covers; -the intellect of our country. We dislike drawing pictures of such imbecility for fear they'll be seen abroad. We can scarcely believe that such ludicrous attempts to open the country are other than a cloak under which to check settlement. Torpidity, stupidity, or dissimulation, or each and all combined, are intensified in such statesmanship, and render it almost hopeless to expect horny-handed, har-fisted farmers to rear their homes on our soil. The key to settlementroads-is a skeleton; it is a trail- a five feet trail- along which it is expected that quadrupeds can be driven or packed. One end of the skeleton is to be lost in the woods, whilst the other is to be dipped in the sea. Were a monkey put on horseback to rile a race on Beacon Hill course, he would not make a greater blunder nor appear more ridiculous than the government by its scheme te open and settle the country. Why we are assured by competent authority that the whole distance from Langford's farm to Nanaimo town will not exceed 70 miles That a road 12 feet wide, with bridges over the streams, and corduroy on the swamps, so as to allow earts and wagons to pass over with sufficient ease for a new country, can be constructed be. Groceries and Provisions. tween those points for £60 per mile. That is £4,200 for a wagon road from Victoria to California Hams & Shoulders; the coal mines at Nanaimo. Even if it cost £5000, it is but a bagatelle. The interest at 10 per cent, would only amount to £500 a year, and at that rate plenty of money can be had in England. Rather than borrow that paltry sum, one or three years ago, we are left without any road whatever to Nanaimo. The intervening waste is only to be approached in cances and then penetrated by trails. What practical ability is there in Ex "SALAMANDER." this? What aptitude for government does this show? What lesson does it teach, except that which has been set by the Indians for the last thousand years?

During the session of 1861, the country was assured by sundry speeches in the As- GENEVA sembly, that the Legislature would meet CHAMPAGNE-50 cases Jacquesson et Fils early, get through its business and close the BURGUNDY-50 cases, Mercury. Nuite, Santenay, C. 1862 before the excity of the session of 1862 before the expiry of the first three menths of the year. One of the grand objects to be attained was roads through the interior. But how vain are all expectations of our senators ! The £20,000 loan bill has just come up for discussion It is made to hinge on a Stamp Act-an obnoxious measure that public opinion will not fail to put down. But even were it dependent on something more "popular and consequently more desirable," it would be all the same so far as the construction of roads this year are concerned from the proceeds of debentures sold in England. Finality will not, in all probability, be reached with the Debenture Act, for the next two months. Six months more will elapse before it can be counted to our credit at the bank; and, as a matter of course, we shall "Bankruptcy Act, 1862" have '63 inaugurated before a road can be commenced. Or if commenced and conthe actual rate at which they will be sold HIBBEN & CARSWELL'S

THE BRITISH COLONIST will be tantement to a discount of 20 or 30 per cent, besides the interest. Then the country will be plundered as well as retarded by a few novices in administrative science

We have by every steamer landing on our soil the bone and sinew and pride of Upper Canadian peasantry. The majority are bound for Cariboo. When October or November arrives they will come down here to winter. The mildness of our insular climate in comparison with that of the interior of British Columbia, would be so attractive to them that they would prefer to settle up our waste lands. From November to May they would lay the foundation of promising farms; and with a necessary modification of our land laws, return to the mines in the spring. Thus, winter and summer they would be em played; whilst the gold of Cariboo would be invested in the country by a thrifty and invocate for the immediate construction of dustrious peasantry. Hid we a road to Nanaimo completed by October, we would be advocates than they are. But will any ob- fully prepared for their return. With branch roads to the coast they would have two strings to their bow-water and land carriage. The country would be opened; and where there was land it could be settled. Whereas, now the Crown lands might just as that the Governor would exert as potent an Ocean, with as promising a prospect of set-

ADDITIONAL FROM STICKEEN .- By the Rebecca we are in receipt of two letters from Stickeen River adventurers. Capt. Whit-iord, late of the schooner Explorer, has opened a trading-post at the mouth of the river and is agent for Ballou's Express at that point. He writes, under date of April 17 that the ground was still frozen, but a thaw had commenced. "Buck" Choquette and river was expected to run out in a few days and the miners would probably start up in a fortnight. Three prospectors had struck dirt which would yield about $1 a day to the pan, and another party which had started eight days before the letter was written, had A letter received by Koshland & Bros., from a friend, says that "Buck" offers to submit to hanging at the hands of the in vogue among them for centuries. Here, miners if he does not show them $10 a-day diggings. Indians were friendly. writer bought a canoe for two pairs of blankets and a musket-worth about $20-at $100 at Stickeen and he advises parties coming up to purchase at Fort Simpson.

LAST WORDS .- Ay the death-bed of nearly every man of note, there is never wanting some reporter conveniently present to pick up his "last word." The correspondent of a San Francisco paper says that Gen. Ben. McCullough, of the Contederates, who was killed in Arkansas during the late three-day battle, had his "last word." Just before he died he was told to prepare for the great change. "Oh, h-II," replied he, and rolling over on his side almost instantly breathed his last. The General was in bad luck to expire among the Federals, for had he died in the midst of his own men, his last words would no doubt have been reported as just the opposite-" Oh, Heaven."

QUEEN CHARLOTTE'S ISLAND COPPER MINES -The workmen met with good success in their operations at this mine for the first six feet, after commencing the shaft; but beyond that depth no ore has yet been found. An Island three miles to the East of that on which the company's claim is located, is represented a very rich in copper. The specimens brought from the mine and at first thought to contain silver, have not yet been tested, but are supposed to Storing .- Many of the newly-arrived immigrants brought trunks or boxes of huge proportions from home, which they are comtransportation to the mines which an attempt to take them there would entail. The smaller the amount of baggage that immigrants take above the head of navigation in British Columbia the better it will be for their pockets and their backs.

EXCITEMENT IN THE EASTERN STATE : .-A great excitement exists in the Eastern States with regard to Cariboo. Passengers who arrived yesterday direct from New York, say that if this year's yield of the mines answers the expectations formed by letterwriters last fall, the rush from the states next year to British Columbia will nearly if not quite equal that to California in '49.

THE "TENTED FIELD."-About thirty tents have been erected along the northerly shore of Rock Bay. They are occupied principally by immigrants who prefer a gipsey-like mode of life for two reasonseconomic and novel. Three young married ladies-fresh from the daisyed fields of Old England-who have determined with true womanly devotion to share the fortunes of their husbands amid the wilds of British Columbia-are encamped with the party.

DESTRUCTION BY FILE OF AN OLD AC-QUAINTANCE.-The little propellor Santa Cruz that used to perform such good service in bringing Oregon produce to this port from Portland, and was recently sold to a Chinese Company, has been destroyed by fire on the Yangtse river, China. The vessel with her entire cargo proved a total loss. So says a letter received by a late arrival from the Flowery Kingdom.

Nor Coming .- The steamship Danie Webster, expected to arrive on this coast from New York, and run between San Francisco and this port direct, has been chartered! by the U. S. Government, for an indefinite period, as a floating hospital.

ARRIVAL OF THE "ENTERPRISE."-This steamer arrived yesterday morning with 12 passengers from New Westminster and an amount of treasure so small that it is not worth mentioning. There is no news of interest.

FROM THE SOUND,-The steamer Eliza Anderson, with 25 passengers and $7497 worth of live stock and other freight, arrived yesterday morning.

CHLOROFORM BURGLARS .- Yesterday we alluded briefly to the presence in this town of a gang of burglar, who resort to the use of chloroform in order the better to accomplish their nefarious ends. In London, Paris, New York, and other large cities. of the old'and new worlds, some years ago the perpetration of robberies with the assistance of chloroform became so frequent that the attention of law-makers was attracted to the evil, and in several countries laws were enacted which rendered the purchase of the article barely possible except where the cushis party have separated, and "Buck" is tomer was well known to the druggist or three miles up the river. The ice in the brought a respectable person to vouch for his honest intentions. In one or two of the Eastern States of America, a law was also passed fixing the penalty for the committal of burglaries in which the use of chloroform was used at, imprisonment for life. The stringent measures thus adopted nearly put not returned to camp. Whisky was scarce. an end to the practice, and the burglars have almost all returned to the old and favorite rules for "cracking cribs," which have been however, the custom, it would seem from several recent occurrences, has been revived. The victims of several recent cases of housebreaking in this town, have awakened later Fort Simpson. Canoes are worth $80 and than usual on the following morning, and experienced severe head aches and a sense of drowsiness for several days thereafter. Elsewhere instances have been known of people similarly treated never fully recovering from the effects of an inhalation of the narcotic. With his victim half-stupified by the application for a few seconds to the nostrils of a handkerchief or sponge saturated with the dangerous fluid, the cracksman works in perfect security, and, so far as any resistance on the part of the pe son whom he has thrown into a state of unnatural slumber is to be feared, may strip the room without dread of detection. With scoundrels in our midst ready to perpetrate such villainy, every citizen's life, health or property is in danger, and some immediate action is required in order to insure us against a repetition of their practices.

NEW BANKING COMPANY .- A prospectus has been issued at London of the British Columbia and Vancouver Island Banking and Gold Trading Company (Limited), with a capital of £250,000, in shares of £10 each, a capital of £250,000, in shares of £10 each, with power to increase to £500,000. The object of the company is sufficiently explained by the title, and the directors state they have decided to establish the present company in London, with a branch at Victoria, the chief town of Vancouver Island; and further to add such other branches in Adam British Columbia as may from time to time be required. These ramifications will be of the utmost inportance, not only to the inpelled to leave on storage at various places habitants alrealy established there, but also Christ. in town, owing to the heavy expense for to the emigrants who may proceed thither from this country. The remuneration of the promoters is limited to the sum of £4 000, in lieu of all further claims on or prospective advantages from the company.—Eng Es.

This banking establishment will be of immense value to the miners of British Columbia. Hitherto there has been no bank agency where a draft or remittance could be had. There has been no place nearer than Victoria at which gold dust could be sold. Should the above company establish itself soon in this place, and extend its branches to the principal mining camps, it would not only prove a highly lucrative undertaking. but enable the miners to send home their remittances without sending to Victoria for drafts.

Ho! For Carlboo .- Nearly every day, for the past three weeks, we have chronicled the departure of at least one passenger of freight-laden steamer for the capital of our sister colony. Yesterday the Enter prise, with 175 passengers and 50 tons of freight, and the Eliza Anderson, with 30 passengers and 25 tons of freight, left the Hudson Bay Co's wharf. The wharves were crowded as usual, and as the boats glided off scenes incident to such occasions transpired. Probably, since navigation opened, 4000 miners have left this town en route to the mines. We are told by letter-writers in mines. We are told by letter-writers in ume is unduly to exalt the authority of human reason, to Lwer the authority of Reverush has but just commenced—that we shall have more people than we want, and that to unsettle faith, and to consign the reader have more people than we want, and that no estimate can be made of the number of immigrants that will leave those countries during this summer for Cariboo. THE CHIMSEANS .- The Chimseans passed Cadboro Bay over a week since on their way North. The Island on which they have settled is not known. The Indians encamped beyond Laurel Point were Stickeens.

The Indianopolis Journal says the mortality among the rebel prisoners in that city does not abate. Thirty-two died last week, and since the first arrival of prisoners one hundred and ten have died, being a greater number than at Chicago, where there are 2,000 more prisoners.

Letter from Barclay Sound

ALBERNI, April 23, 1862. EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST:-Copper mining and prospecting is all the rage in Barclay Sound. Two parties appear in pretty good earnest about the matter, viz.: The Santa Maria Company and report, as the parties concerned have means accessed.

Many people have doubted that codfish abound sufficiently on the West Coast to make a paying business; but this year has sufficiently proved that codfish abound in the neighborhood of this Sound. The Indians have been offering them for sale by hundreds—excellent fish, averaging 11 lbs. Some men from the Provinces here, say they have never seen better.

Divine service was held twice here on last Sabbath by Rev. O. Glover. The reverend gentleman is about establishing a library and reading room.

The New Theology.

A good deal has been printed within a few months past, about the "new theology" taught in a book published in England with the title of "Essays and Reviews. only a few of our readers will find time to examine the book, while all will wish to have some general idea of its contents, we copy the following from the report of a we copy the tolowing from the report of a committee appointed to consider the subject matter of the obnoxious volume. The re-port was presented by Archdeacon George Anthony Denison:

"The book committed to our examination

RAVEN STORIES .- It is a curious fact that the next steamer to make arrangements for the establishment of a line of first-class steam-vessels between this port and Southampton, England, via Panama. The attention which Cariboo is attracting in Great Britain, adds strength to the rumor.

Britain, adds strength to the rumor.

The steam-thing transplant of the world. Give the miners plenty of the world. Our rather in the tow and rob consequence the stablishment of a line of first-class steam-vessels between this port and Southampton, and the vield of precious metal by Cariboo before next fall will astonish the world.

Row.—Officer Shepard, on Wharf street, they are jolly, because they are most opposite reasons—drunking, because they are jolly, because they are so wretchedly poor—is more than I can with a hatchet by a man named Michael. say. I only know that of the few remaining Griffin. The officer drew his pistol, and ravens left in London, at least one-half are after a long struggle, during which the pistol attached to public houses, and nearly always to such houses as adhere to the old custom of sign-posts and water-troughs.

Some years ago there was attached to a tavern at Stoke Newington a raven whose great ant pathy was grey or white horses. Brown, black or roan horses might half out-side and welcome, but so sure as one of the dotested color drew up and appeared at the detested color drew up and appeared at the water trough, Peg was on the alert. She would perch on the very edge of the trough and abuse the poor animal in the very choicest Billingsgate, or "Gee, wheat" in that exact imitation of a carter, and start it off. last I should have thought all this was done for pure fun and love of mischief but for an incident related to me by the landlord, and which at once proved that the bird was actuthe landlord, and ated by sheer malice.

It happened one day that Peg was par-ticularly curious respecting a tobacco box belonging to a sailor who was drinking ale in the parlor. Presently the sailor took a "quid" from the box and put it in his mouth. Peg watched the operation with great atten-Two parties appear in pretty good carnest about the matter, viz.: The Santa Maria Company and the Copper Island Company. They are decidedly in carnest. Practical miners are at work on both veins and pronounce them promising. Rumor says that a smelting works will be put up in a short time on Copper Island. I have faith in the report, as the parties concerned have means and energy.

Many people have doubted that codfish abound smilleightly on the West Coast to make a paying business: but this year has sufficiently proved that codfish abound in the neighborhood of this Sound. The Indians have been offering them for sale by the shorter smaller of house in puestion, and was drawn up to the trough to drink, and the rayen instantly began her persecution. Finding abuse and assault of no avail, Peg turned into the house, and, finding some men smoking in the tap-room, she caught up a paper of tobacco from the table, flew to the edge of the trough with it, and deliberately dropped it into the horse's nose-bag.—Home

IJ A correspondent describing scenes on the battle-field at Fort Donelson, says: A Secession soldier, a member of the 10th (Irish) Tennessee Regiment, I believe, was lying just inside the fortifications. His glazing eyes gave assurance that fife was embraced in a few minutes. He held a rosary and crucifix in his hand, and his moving lips were doubtless offering a prayer. He had evidently endeavored to kneel, but was too weak. One of our soldiers saw and hurried to assist him his attitude of prayer, and, while engaged in this kind office, a shot from the rebel cannon struck and kined them both. and killed them both.

No more rebel prisoners are to be released till Col. Corcoran and every Union prisoner now in the hands of the rebels is unconditionally discharged. They have unconditionally discharged. They have wantonly violated their agreements. The release of the Romoke prisoners more than squared the account with them, and by the terms of their agreement they were to be exchanged man for man, which would have taken every prisoner they now hold. But being debtors, they repudiate in this as in all other agreements, where the obligations of honor and honesty should find them.—Ex

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—The treatment pursued by Professor Holloway for the cure of wounds and ulcers is the most simple and certain in its effects, it has been tried by hundreds of thousands, and never been known to fail; by the administration of an internal remedy (the Pills,) he drives disease out, and by the administration of an external remedy (the Ointment,) he heals wounds, ulcers, and the worst of external disorders. By this celebrated treatment, also, bad legs, and ulcers, are cured, even when they have been upwards of twenty years standing.
